The First Part teacheth the Principles of the Whole Art of Astrologie, with a perspicuous Method for to judg of all manner of Nativities, Revolutions, &c. both in Precept and Example.

The Second containeth, The whole Art of Directions, with Tables of all sorts, fitted to that purpose: And Tables for calculating the Planets places for any time, either past, present or to come; and the way how to make them applicable to all parts and places of the world.

If by the Law some persons do not gain,
They curse the Lawyers, when within their brain
The knave or fool doth certainly remain.

Shall we the broom b'ame, 'cause the channel smels;
Or burn the Bell-frie for the noise o' th' bells?
This were injustice without parallels.

TRIG, 1661.

Of the Eclipses this Year.

Four times will the Inhabitants of this Earthy Star be deprived of the sight of the Luminaries, viz. twice of the Suns and twice of the Moons.

The first happens on March 20. near 10 of the clock before Noon, and is a visible Eclipse of the Sun to us in England, there being above then 7 parts of 12 darkned.

The second is an invisible Eclipse of the Moon on April the 4th. about Our 4 a clock after Noon: this will be visible in East-India, in Java the Great and Less, and in the Oriental Kingdom of Bengala.

The third is of the Sun, on September 13. but cannot be seen of Us, in respect of the great South-Latitude of the Moon, which being increased by her Parallax, doth far exceed the sum of the two Declinameters; but it will appear almost a total Eclipse in South-Affrick, the Island of St. Thomas, and in the neighbouring Tract of the Southern-Land unknown to us.

The fourth will be an Eclipse of the Moon, on September 28. at 3 of the clock in the Morning, and will be visible to us. The digits Eclipsed will be above 7 of 12. I want room to insert their Effects.

Of the Solar Ingresses, 1661.

The Spring begins when Sol enters Aries, which this year happens on Saturday March 9. 12 hou. 40 min. P. M.

The Summer initiates when Sol enters Cancer, and now falls out on Monday June the 10. 15 hou. 36 min. P. M.

Autumn comenceth when Sol enters Libra, and this year is on September the 12th. 6 hou. 39. min. P. M.

Winter inchoates when Sol enters Capricorn, which happens now on December the 10th. 17 min. P. M. or the 11th. at 17 min. past 6 in the morning.

I should have given you here a general judgement of the Year, which is likely to prove very cross and unhappy, full of Quarrels, Contentions, Strife, Law-Suits, and Controversies; there being a Spirit let loose among the Sons of Men, which will earnestly irritate and stir them up, to the Undoing and Ruining of each other: But wanting room, I shall request the lovers of Litigiousness (for that way all Ill Bent persons take now) to seriously peruse, and rest

Trig, 1661.

rest satisfied with this Diffusion from Contention.

I Know most Courts in London, and protest
Cannot tell which for to prefer as best :
Should I extol the Court of Chancery,
I then (God knowes) must give my Purse the lie,
And if Th' Exchequer I do best maintain,
I speak against my Conscience and my Gain ;
Nor dare I praise the Court Prerogative,
For there the Proctors would not let me thrive :
Nay, though my Cause were just, yet I cann't brag
That I have scap't the Lawyers trotting Nagg.
'Tis true, my Bum mist Gauling ; but their Lash
Did reach the Reins and Marrow of my Cash ;
For which I have resolved with myself,
To run on Rocks to avoid their dangerous shelf.

To Drown in Quiet Waters is more good,
Then to be Poysoned in Nasty Mudd.
There are a sort of Knocking-Jobber-Noules,
On every side of Pulchers and of Pauls ;
Who live this Knack, Contention, and do think,
Nothing so Learned as the Lawyers Ink :
Count it their Glory for to get a Cause,
They may imploy those Burdocks of the Lawes.
And is it not (think we) a gallant sport,
For to be Register'd a Fool in Court ?
And a high Honour to be used so,
By those kind Corns of Grave Justinian's Toe :
Let but the Plaintiff, if he get the better,

Trig, 1661.

*And quit himself from being his Lawyers Debtor ;
Tell me how much a Winner he doth rise ;
For I suppose the Bottles of his Eyes
May hold his Gains : If so, sure he's an Elf,
To please the Lawyers, will thus plague himself.
Now, since their baseness is discover'd thus,
(And Men by them made most Unprosperous)
Let me perswade such, who have felt the smart
Of these Steelettoes at their Purses heart,
For to be Moderate (if that they can)
And Reap (at least) the Crown of Quiet Man.
So shall they scape a Mass of Villainy,
And Rascal tricks they often learn thereby :
So shall they scape the Laws Corroding evil,
And canse its Catch-Poles next to ply the Devil.*

But since the World is compounded of Learned and Un-learned, Prudent, and Religions, Reasonable, and Unreasonable, Wise, and otherwise ; I cannot but expect to be censured by some, for having too much Tarter in my Ink, and Acrimony in my Lines :
Every one knowes not the use of a Distinguer- dum, and many esteem the use and abuse of a thing alike : I need not Apologize to the Intelligent and Learned, although Lawyers themselves ; but for satisfaction to weak
Judgements, I shall explain my self, and request them to-----

*Mistake me not, for I don't here intend,
Those Learned Senators which wisely and* the true Use or Interest thereof.

I look 60 in the side 3 Column; and against it under 3
Moneths, I finde it to be 18 sh. & sic in alis.
